RECAP

It was another exciting night of roller derby action at the Linn County Fairgrounds on Saturday night as the Sick Town Derby Dames S*M*A*S*H* Unit hosted the Lava City Roller Dolls Smokin' Ashes.

The S*M*A*S*H* Unit came into the bout more like a M*A*S*H* unit due to a host of injuries keeping three key skaters (Wrath of Kant, SmackDaPus and Land Tuna) on the sidelines.

Sick Town's own Stitches N' Bones kicked off the bout with a quick 6 points in the first jam and helped get the S*M*A*S*H* Unit off to a good start.

After five jams, Sick Town was leading 17-9 and were skating with confidence thanks to jammers Chelle F.U. Up and HotBoxxx.

However, penalties began to hurt the S*M*A*S*H* Unit and the Smokin' Ashes took the lead permanently when NightMary scored 15 points in the 6th jam. The Smokin' Ashes shut out the Derby Dames over the next 6 jams and extended their lead to 83-17.

Stitches N' Bones helped get her team back on the scoreboard in the 13th, 15th and 19th jams, but the hardworking S*M*A*S*H* Unit still trailed at the half 108-38.

The Smokin' Ashes began the second half looking to squash the energy of the S*M*A*S*H Unit and kept the pressure on by taking advantage of penalties and racking up the points.

Still even when trailing 197-50 after 14 jams, the Sick Town Derby Dames finished the bout strong, led once again by Stitches N' Bones, who displayed seemingly endless amounts of energy and showed no quit. She and every member of the S*M*A*S*H* Unit left everything out on the track and made all of their fans proud with a tremendous effort.

In the end though it wasn't enough, as the Lava City Roller Dolls came away as winners by a score of 222-59 when Screaming Meanie finished off the bout with a resounding 15 points.
